

Q&A

WITH JULES EVERETT

Q: Why did you join yearbook staff?

A: I joined the staff because I wanted to get involved in school extracurriculars and I really enjoyed intro class.

Q: What's your favorite part about staff?

A: I like the social aspect and the opportunities I get to meet people on staff and through interviews.

Q: Do you like your position in staff?

A: Yes, I love being a reference editor because it gives me a sense of leadership and responsibility.

Q: What's your biggest challenge while being in staff?

A: Besides writing stories, learning time management and just the overall adjustment onto staff from intro.

Q: What's your best memory of being in staff?

A: My favorite memory was definitely The Event. We all meshed well and had a great time together.

Q: Are you excited for your editorial position?

A: Yes, and I'm super excited to bring new things to the table.

Q: What is a lesson you have learned in staff?

A: I have learned how to talk to people I don't know and keep an interesting conversation.

Q: What's your favorite part about staff?

A: Yes, because of the great family atmosphere, and it's a good way to start being proactive.

Q: How would you describe what staff is like?

A: Being on staff is like a sports team bond but without the sports. We eat a lot and make a book.

Q: How has being on staff helped you in the real world?

A: By being responsible. It has a job feel where you have deadlines that you have to take care of.

Q: How has being on staff helped you become a better person?

A: I've become more social, though it may not appear that way at times. I've met a lot of great people and just started to learn to enjoy my surroundings.

Q: Will you use techniques you learned in staff?

A: I will use my design skills I've learned. I have already applied them to other classes and I even designed some things for my friends to use.

Q: What was your favorite activity in staff?

A: The Event was so much fun. If you're on staff and missed it, I feel bad for you.

Q: What would you tell future staffers as advice?

A: I would tell them to have one conversation about something outside of yearbook in class.

Q: What was your proudest moment in staff?

A: Being chosen to be a reference editor. It meant the world that I could have this opportunity on staff.

Q: Are you happy with your accomplishments this year?

A: Yes I can leave this year knowing I tried my hardest, and did everything best I could.

Q: What has been your favorite interview?

A: My favorite interview was one I did for their favorite ice cream flavors and the answers were just crazy and super weird.

Q: What is a lesson you have learned in staff?

A: My least favorite thing would be doing dailies because I would be out for 2 class periods in a row walking around asking teachers to take pictures

Q: If you could rejoin staff what would you change?

A: I would come onto staff more of a social butterfly and get to know more people.

Q: What is a positive change you'd like to see?

A: I'd like to see more merging between classes, and probably better communication between editors and staffers.
